It is time to get on with normal activiies in the new computer world.
Things have changed and we can no longer judge todays business with the conditions of the
past.
The proposed settlement between the plaintiff and microsoft is a fair one and
the
government should embrace it and move out of the way.
This segment of the business world is fast and changing.
Move On
